RE: Piechur v. Redbox Automated Retail, LLC, Case No. 09-L-562, St. Clair County, IL
Sent via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested No. 7009 2250 0001 9429 0819

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find a subpoena including attachment A, a notice of discovery deposition and a business records affidavit. At your earliest convenience, please contact me to discuss these matters.

I request that you produce all responsive documents in PDF format. If you cannot produce documents in such a format, then I request that you produce documents in printed form unless we otherwise agree in writing to a different electronic format beforehand. Prior to copying any documents, please contact me because I may want to inspect them first.

After you compile all responsive documents, please produce them with an executed, notarized business records affidavit. For your convenience, I have enclosed a form affidavit. If I receive the documents and executed affidavit no less than three days prior to the scheduled deposition referenced in the enclosed notice of discovery deposition, then the deposition will be cancelled pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 204(a)(4). The cancellation of this deposition, however, does not mean that I will not depose you on a different date.

If you refuse to produce any documents responsive to the enclosed subpoena, then please be aware that such documents are an important and irreplaceable source of evidence in this class action. Accordingly, please take every necessary step to preserve all responsive documents until the court resolves any disputes.

Very Truly Yours,

Jeffrey A. J. Millar

ATTACHMENT "A"

DEFINITIONS

In addition to their usual and customary meanings, the following terms, including any derivations thereof, shall be defined as follows and apply to your responses:

1. The terms "you" and "your" means McDonald's Corporation and its predecessors, successors, subsidiaries (including McDonald's Ventures, LLC), units, divisions, affiliates, joint ventures, parents, officers, directors, agents, employees and/or independent contractors (including without limitation, its attorneys, accountants, bankers, advisors, public relations firms, advertising firms, and marketing firms), and all persons acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of it.

2. The term "Defendant" means the named defendant(s) in this action, Redbox Automated Retail, LLC and shall also include all parents, subsidiaries, affiliates (including but not limited to indirect corporate affiliates), officers, directors, employees, agents, counsel and representatives thereof.

3. The term "Plaintiff" means Laurie Piechur.

4. The term "entity" means any proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, association, governmental agency or other organization.

5. The relevant time period for the existence of responsive documents is any time from January 1, 2002 to the present, unless otherwise indicated.

6. The term "document" shall be interpreted in the broadest possible sense and means any document, object to tangible thing subject to discovery under Rule 214 including, without limitation, all written recorded, printed, typed, transcribed, filmed, digitized, or graphic matter and all other tangible things and media upon which any handwriting, typing, printing, drawing, representation, electrostatic or other copy, sound and video recording, visual reproduction or communication is recorded, reproduced or represented, including but not limited to, books, records, correspondence, reports, memorandum, electronic mail (i.e., “e-mail”), contracts, tables, graphs, charts, diagrams, calendars, appointment books, reports, studies, analyses, drafts, files, telephone logs and, messages, checks, microfilms, electronic data compilations, drafts, tapes, diskettes, notes, minutes or transcripts of proceedings. Documents shall include originals and all non-identical copies (whether different from the original because of notes made in or attached to such copy or otherwise) all other data compilations from which information can be obtained, and any preliminary versions, drafts or revisions of any of the foregoing.

7. The term “communication” or “communicate” means any sharing of information with another person in person ,on the telephone or in written form in a discussion, conversation letter facsimile, note, electronic message (i.e., “E-mail”) or any other vocal, hand or type written form.

8. The term “refer” or “relate” means to make a statement about, discuss, describe, show, reflect, concern, identify, constitute, consist of, or pertain to, in whole or in part, the subject.

9. The term “testimony” or “testify” means to testify in a deposition or in court, or to provide an affidavit, declaration or any other form of sworn statements.

10. Except as specifically provided herein, words imparting the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent you contend any word or phrase is not defined or otherwise vague and/or ambiguous, Plaintiff will accept a dictionary definition of that word or phrase as indicative of its meaning.

REQUESTS

1. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to your corporate structure as it previously related to the marketing, promotion, production and distribution of Redbox brand DVD vending kiosks during the time you had an ownership stake in Defendant.

2. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to the relationship between you and Defendant.

3. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to the beginning and end of your ownership interest in the Redbox brand DVD vending kiosk.

4. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to the idea to implement a self-automated kiosk that offers customers DVD rentals for only $1 a night.

5. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to how $1 a night was chosen as the amount of a Redbox DVD rental.

6. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any Terms of Conditions, Terms of Use or similar terms (including drafts) for use of Redbox DVD vending kiosks since the beginning of their implementation in any of your restaurants, including any drafts or changes thereto during the relevant time period.

7. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to any complaints, grievances or inquiries from customers regarding allegations that any additional rental period fees for Redbox DVD rentals were actually "late fees."

8. To the extent not responsive to the above, please produce all documents that refer or relate to any complaints, whether internally to McDonald's, or externally to such groups as the Better Business Bureau or the Federal Trade Commission that the Redbox DVD vending kiosk additional rental fees were in actually "late fees."

9. Please produce all documents that refer or relate to whether and if so, you record, track, document or otherwise memorialize by any nature whatsoever complaints, grievances or inquiries from consumers regarding allegations that any additional rental period fees from Redbox DVD rentals were actually "late fees."

10. Please produce all documents referring or relating to your ability to determine, during the time you had an ownership stake in Defendant, by date, time and minute when a DVD is returned to a Redbox brand DVD vending kiosk.

11. Please produce all documents referring or relating to how and why 25 days was determined as the threshold time limit after which a customer who has not returned a DVD would be charged the Maximum Charge, during the time which you had an ownership interest in Defendant.

12. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any analysis performed of the return policy, late return policy, extended viewing fees policy, additional rental fees policy, no late fees policy, $1 a day late fees policy or $1 a day re-rental fee policy for Blockbuster, Hollywood Video, Netflix or any other DVD rental company during the time within which you had an ownership interest in Defendant.

13. Please produce all documents referring or relating to the amount of Maximum Charges (e.g. $25) collected from Redbox brand DVD vending kiosk since January 1, 2002.

14. Please produce all documents referring or relating to the total amount of used DVD sales from a Redbox brand DVD vending kiosk since January 1, 2002.

15. Please produce all documents referring or relating to your ability to identify all persons in the United States who from January 1, 2002 rented a DVD disc from a Redbox kiosk, returned the disc within 24 hours after the initial rental date and incurred a $1 fee.

16. Please produce all documents referring or relating to your ability to identify all persons in the United States who from January 1, 2002 rented a DVD disc from a Redbox kiosk and were charged the "Maximum Charge" for the disc.

17. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any reports, analysis or studies regarding the amount of consumers that you predicted would pay a Maximum Charge from a DVD rental from a Redbox brand DVD vending kiosk during which time you had an ownership interest in Defendant.

18. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any training or policy manuals providing to employees regarding your billing practices or procedures of Redbox DVD rentals during which time you had an ownership interest in Defendant.

19. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any description of rental charges as "late charges" regarding the Redbox DVD vending kiosk.

20. Please produce all studies, analysis, white papers or PowerPoint presentations of any other DVD rental company's late fee policy.

21. Please produce all documents referring or relating to rental fees, rental rates or rental charges or extra day rates as "late fees."

22. Please produce all documents referring or relating to any conversations, meetings, minutes, correspondence between You and Redbox regarding rental fee policies.

23. Please produce all agreement(s) between You and Redbox regarding the use and implementation of Redbox DVD vending kiosks at any of your Restaurant locations.

24. All documents that refer or relate to any arbitration or litigation (individual, class, or purported class) including any demands for arbitration (including class, individual or purported class) against you claiming additional rental fees from Redbox DVD vending kiosks are in reality “late fees” or “unlawful penalties.”
